EXTERNAL VALIDATION

Last Thursday, Corndale Public School took part in the External Validation process. This involved an executive from the Department of Education's Leadership and High Performance as well as a Peer-Principal, validating the school's judgement of "how we are going?" against the School Excellence Framework (SEF). Prior to the meeting, our school compiled a self-assessment submission, providing evidence (photos, work samples, timetables etc) against 14 elements of the SEF. Our school was praised by the executives and our self-assessment judgements were validated. Thank you to the staff for your assistance in collecting evidence and for taking part in the rich conversations during the meeting of "where to next?" for our school.

GILBERT- BUNJALUNG LANGUAGE

It was great to see Uncle Gilbert back to teach us some more Bundjalung Language last Friday. The focus of last week's lessons was Australian birds. Here are some translations:

Marang – bird

Ngurring – emu

Buun Buun -owl

Miwan– eagle

Gaaguuw – kookaburra

Deeriya - Seagull

Djuggi Djuggi – chicken/bush turkey

KEN MORTIMOR

It is with sadness that we heard the news of Ken Mortimer's passing recently. Ken was a well-regarded Corndale resident who worked tirelessly along side Sandy Hunter to create the Historical Cabinets of Corndale. One of the identical cabinets is stored in the school's residence. It is available for the public to have a look through. Thank you, Ken, for what you created for the Corndale community.

VIRTUES

Thankfulness: is being grateful for what you have. It is an attitude of gratitude for learning, loving, and being. It is appreciating the little things which happen around you and within you every day. It is having a sense of wonder about the beauty of this world. It is being aware of the gifts in your life.

Love: is a special feeling that fills your heart. You show love in a smile, a pleasant way of speaking, a thoughtful act or a hug. Love is treating people and things with special care and kindness because they mean so much to you. Love is treating other people just as you would like them to treat you - with care and respect.
